Call for Papers

The Southwestern Society of Economists is accepting submissions for the 2011 issue of the Southwestern Economic Review. All papers dealing with economics-oriented topics and issues are welcome. The submitted manuscripts are refereed via a double-blind process. Papers should not be submitted for consideration for publication in the 2011 issue of the Review and for presentation at the 2011 Southwestern Society of Economists Meeting.

Each submission is assessed a non-refundable fee of $25 for members of the Southwestern Society of Economists and $45 for non-members. All manuscripts must be submitted by Friday, September 17, 2010 to be considered for the 2011 issue.

Papers should be submitted via e-mail to the e-mail address below. Please include a cover page containing the author’s name, position, affiliation/university, complete address, telephone and fax numbers, and e-mail address. The submission fee should be sent the address below.

The Southwestern Society of Economists announces the establishment of Southwestern Economic Review: Research Notes. We hope to use this new mechanism to share research that is not yet ready for publication as a formal paper but is of timely interest to readers. Southwestern Economic Review: Research Notes will be an on-line publication at the web site www.ser.tcu.edu. Submissions will be reviewed by members of the Editorial Board of the Southwestern Economic Review, who will then recommend to the Editor whether or not publication is warranted.

Please submit your Research Note in a Word document to the e-mail address listed. The total length of text must not exceed 800 words and the title should not exceed 10 words. Numbers may be included, but do not include equations, diagrams, or footnotes. References to previously published works should appear in parentheses within the body of the text and should include the name of the author(s), name of the journal or book, and year of publication.

Members of the Southwestern Society of Economists who presented papers at the Annual Meeting in Dallas in March 2010 are especially encouraged to submit a Research Note based on the paper presented. If accepted, it will be noted in the publication that the Research Note is based on a paper presented at the meetings.

Submissions should be sent electronically in a WordPerfect or Word file to e.mcnertney@tcu.edu. There is a $10 submission fee for all research notes submitted by members and a $20 fee for non-members. IN ADDITION, if the paper is accepted for publication, there will be an additional publication fee of $30 for members and $65 for non-members. A check for the submission fee should be sent to the address below.

FEES

Southwestern Economic Review - There is a $25 submission fee for all manuscripts submitted by members of the Southwestern Society of Economists and a $45 fee for non-members. This fee must accompany submission of the manuscript. IN ADDITION, if the paper is accepted for publication, there will be an additional fee of $2 per page for the first five pages and $10 per page thereafter.

FINAL MANUSCRIPT REQUIREMENTS

All manuscripts accepted for publication in the Review or Proceedings must be submitted in WordPerfect 7.0 (or higher) or Word 97 (or higher) and e-mailed to the above e-mail address.

1. Spacing and Type. All manuscripts should be single-spaced using size 11 Times New Roman font.

2. Margins. The first page of the manuscript should have a two-inch margin from the top of the first page. Side and bottom margins on the first page and all margins on subsequent pages should be one inch. The paragraphs should have a five space indentation.

3. Title and Headings. Manuscript titles should be left-justified and bolded in all capital letters. (1) First-level headings should be triple spaced below text, left-justified, bolded and in all capital letters with no numbers. (2) Second-level headings should be centered and bolded with only the first letter of main words capitalized. (3) Third-level headings should be at the left margin and underlined.
with the first letter of main words capitalized. There should be a triple-space before, and a double-space after, all subheadings.

4. Abstract. The abstract should appear three spaces below the title in a section entitled ABSTRACT. It should present the principal substantive or theoretical points of the manuscript in no more than 100 words. Abstracts are not included in Proceedings publications.

5. Tables, Figures, and Illustrations. Tables should be typed on separate pages with notations inserted in the manuscript such as [Table 1 about here]. Submit camera-ready copy for figures and illustrations on separate pages. The headings should be in all capital letters. When composing tables, the table format or the tab key is to be used in lieu of “spacing over.” Please remember that tables will have to be resized to fit the margins of the Review.

6. Formulas. Formulas should be single-spaced with two spaces below and above each formula. Each formula should have a number in parentheses on the right margin.

7. Endnotes and References. Endnotes should be used rather than footnotes. The endnotes should be consecutively numbered within the text and appear after the references. Please do not use the Endnote feature in Word. All references to books, articles, monographs, etc., should be numbered and placed at the end of the text and prior to the endnotes, with a hanging indent, in a section labeled References.
