PREFACE

The publication of this issue of the Southwestern Economic Review (SER) was made possible by the support and efforts of a number of dedicated people. First, the faculty and staff of the College of Business at West Texas A&M University provided much needed support, which ensured the success of this endeavor. In particular, Betsey Tonne provided critical review, editing, and formatting of the articles. Second, the reviewers of the manuscripts submitted to the Southwestern Economic Review provided much needed expertise in helping to decide which papers to accept for publication. The editor is grateful for all of this help and hopes this issue of the Southwestern Economic Review will promote and advance our organization, the Southwestern Society of Economists, to new educational and professional horizons.

The Southwestern Society of Economists is affiliated with the Federation of Business Disciplines. The annual membership fee of the Society is $49 and includes a subscription to the Southwestern Economic Review. There are no submission fees or publication fees associated with the Review, but authors are encouraged to join the Southwestern Society of Economists.

The website for the Southwestern Economic Review is <http://swer.wtamu.edu>. It contains past issues and manuscript guidelines.

Once again, many thanks to those who helped bring this publication to fruition.

Anne Macy, Editor
Southwestern Economic Review

Prior host institutions of the Southwestern Economic Review include Baylor University, Ray Perryman, editor; Arkansas State University, John Kaminarides, editor; and Texas Christian University, Ed McNertney, editor.
